

Lesson 02

Networking Practice

Role-Play

At a networking event.

James: Hi My name is James. What is your name?

Kath: Hello, James! I'm Kath

James: Nice to meet you, Kath. How are you?

Kath: I'm good, thank you. And you?

James: I'm good too! Are you here for the event?

Kath: Yes, I am. I'm learning about marketing. How about you?

James: I'm new to business, but I want to learn more.

Kath: That's great! Marketing is interesting.

James: Yes, it sounds exciting. How long have you been learning marketing?

Kath: I've been learning for a year. It's fun!

James: Can I have your email to stay in touch?

Kath: Sure! It's kath.marketing@gmail.com

James: Thank you, Kath! I'll email you soon.

Kath: You're welcome, James. I look forward to hearing from you.

James: Bye, Kath! Have a nice day!

Kath: Bye, James! Take care!

Role-Play Analysis

Answer the following questions:

1. How did the conversation start?
2. How did the participants maintain a polite and professional tone?
3. How did James express interest in continuing the relationship?

Practice

Matching Type Activity

Instructions: Match each networking situation (Column A) with the best networking practice (Column B).

COLUMN A	COLUMN B
____ 1. You meet a professional at a business event and want to continue the conversation after the event.	a. Introduce yourself confidently, maintain good eye contact, and share a brief but compelling summary of what you do.
____ 2. You are introduced to a senior executive at a networking event, and you want to make strong first impression.	b. Maintain eye contact, introduce yourself clearly, and show genuine interest in their business needs.
____ 3. You want to maintain a relationship with a contact you met months ago without seeming pushy.	c. Send a follow-up message referencing your conversation and expressing interest in staying connected.

Stressed Syllables

Practice pronouncing these words with the correct stress:

1. NETworking
2. GENuine
3. MARketing
4. CONference
5. ConverSAtions

Production

Networking at a Conference

Instructions:

1. You are attending a Business Conference related to your field.
2. Network with other attendees, exchange information, and make valuable connections.
3. Networking skills to be highlighted:
 - * Starting conversations
 - * Asking open-ended questions
 - * Active listening
 - * Sharing information about themselves
 - * Closing conversations politely

Roles: Job seeker, Entrepreneurs, Company Representative, Industry Experts

Key Vocabulary

Word/Phrase	Use	Example
Networking	Used in building professional relationship	Networking helps you meet new people.
Follow-Up	Contacting someone after meeting them	I sent a follow-up email after the meeting.
Introduction	Presenting yourself to someone new	Her introduction was friendly and clear.
Opportunities	Chances to gain experience or jobs	Networking gives you job opportunities.
Stay in Touch	Keep communicating after the event	Let's stay in touch after the event.