

Lesson 19

Case Study: Sales Pitch

Warm-Up

- Have you ever tried to convince someone to buy something? What did you say?

Case-study

Study the cases below and answer the questions:

Sales-pitch 1: SmartHome Automation System

Hello everyone, my name is Alex, and I'm excited to introduce you to our SmartHome Automation System. In today's fast-paced world, home automation is becoming essential for convenience and security. Our system allows you to control lights, thermostat, and security cameras from anywhere using your smartphone.

With features like voice control, energy monitoring, and customizable alerts, you can improve your home's efficiency while ensuring your family's safety. Our customers have reported a significant decrease in their energy bills and an increased sense of security.

We would love to offer you a free consultation to tailor the system to your needs. Imagine coming home to a perfectly lit environment, all controlled by your voice or a simple tap on your phone. Thank you for your time, and I'm here to answer any questions you may have.

Sales-pitch 2: Generic Fitness Tracker

Hey, everyone. I want to talk about our new fitness tracker. It can count your steps and track your heart rate. I think you might find it helpful.

Some people say it's good, and it has a few features. But honestly, it's pretty similar to other fitness trackers out there. It's not the cheapest option, but you can wear it on your wrist, which is cool.

You should probably buy it if you want to get fit, but I don't have specific details or statistics right now. Just let me know if you have any questions.

Role-play Analysis

1. What specific features of the SmartHome Automation System were highlighted, and how do they address customer needs?
2. How did the presenter use data or testimonials to support SmartHome Automation System?
3. How did the lack of specific details impact the audience's perception of the Generic Fitness Tracker?
4. How did the presenter's tone and confidence affect the credibility of the Generic Fitness Tracker pitch?
5. What suggestions would improve the presentation of the Generic Fitness Tracker to make it more persuasive?

Discussion

- What are the essential steps or elements that should be included in an effective sales pitch?
- If you were the customer, what other questions would you ask before making a decision?
- What is the best way to handle questions or objections during a sales pitch?

Sales-pitch elements

Part of Sales Pitch	Brief Definition	Key Phrases
Opening	The introduction that sets the tone and engages the audience.	• "Thank you for being here today." • "I appreciate the opportunity to present."
Establishing Need	Identifies the problem or need that the product addresses.	• "Many people face challenges with..." • "This need has been growing because..."
Product Features	Describes the characteristics and functionalities of the product or service.	• "Our product offers several key features..." • "This feature allows you to..."
Supporting Evidence	Provides data, testimonials, or case studies to support claims.	• "According to research conducted by..." • "We have received positive feedback from clients such as..."
Call to Action	Encourages the audience to take a specific action.	• "I invite you to try [Product/Service]..." • "Take the next step and join us."
Closing	Summarizes key points and expresses gratitude.	• "In summary, [Product/Service] can help you..." • "Thank you for your time."

Practice

A. Fill-in the Blanks: Complete the sentences by filling in the correct word.

busy	hydrated	love	different	language
------	----------	------	-----------	----------

- HydroSmart is a smart water bottle that keeps you _____ (1).
- It's perfect for _____ (2) people who forget to drink water.
- What makes it _____ (3) is that it sends reminders to your phone.
- You'll _____ (4) it because it helps you stay healthy.

B. Choose the best answer

- What is the main purpose of a sales pitch?
 - To inform the audience about general information
 - To persuade the audience to buy a product or service
 - To entertain the audience
- Which of the following is a good way to start a sales pitch?
 - "I hope you will consider this."
 - "Let me tell you what our competitor offers."
 - "Thank you for giving me the chance to present [Product/Service]."
- When should you include statistics in your sales pitch?
 - To support your claims and strengthen your arguments
 - To show off knowledge without context
 - Only if you remember them
- Which phrase might you use in a call to action?
 - "If you feel like it, maybe consider our offer."
 - "Think about it and let us know later."
 - "Sign up today to experience the benefits!"

5. In a competitive pitch scenario, what should the presenter focus on to stand out?
 - a) Lengthy descriptions of features
 - b) Praise for the audience's company
 - c) The unique selling points that differentiate their product from others
 - d) Avoiding questions to maintain control
6. What is a common mistake in a sales pitch?
 - a) Engaging the audience with questions
 - b) Being too vague about the product benefits
 - c) Clearly outlining the purpose of your pitch

Production

QUICK SALES PITCH

1. Students go into pairs.
2. Choose a product (real or imaginary)
3. Prepare the Sales Pitch: Using the structure in the lesson, each pair will outline their pitch, including:
 - Opening: Introduce yourself and the product.
 - Need: Explain the problem the product addresses.
 - Features: Highlight key features of the product.
 - Supporting Evidence: Provide any relevant statistics or testimonials.
 - Call to Action: Encourage action (e.g., "Try it today!").
 - Closing: Summarize key points and thank the audience.
4. Present to the Class
 - Encourage enthusiastic delivery and the use of persuasive language.
5. Receive Peer Feedback

Wrap-Up

- Which persuasive phrases did you find most useful?
- How confident do you feel giving a short sales pitch now?
- How can you use these skills in your job or future career?